Galveston County jury sentences man to 10 years and 8 years for road rage incident

GALVESTON, Texas — On Wednesday, January 16, 2019, a Galveston County jury convicted a Harris County man of aggravated assault after the defendant pleaded guilty to felony evading with a vehicle. The jury sentenced him to 10 years in prison on the evading charge and 8 years in prison on the aggravated assault charge.

The charges against Adrian Galvez Plasencia began as Galveston County resident Perry Coleman was driving to work in the early morning hours of June 2018 when he attempted to turn onto FM 2004 from the I-45 feeder road. Coleman testified that as he attempted to pass through the intersection, there was one vehicle driven by the defendant, that stayed parked even though the light was green.
